

As I open your word,
Your word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path today.

I am hiding your word deep in my heart so that I won't sin against you.

Your word will not return void today without accomplishing what YOU want in my life in this moment, today, and forever.

I am receiving the wisdom and discernment, knowledge and understanding of God as I read your word.

This law will not depart from my mouth. I am meditating on it day and night. I am careful to do according to all that is written in it.

I trust that you will make my way prosperous and I will have good success as I do.

As I read your word, I am a doer of the word not just a hearer.

Your word is guarding my heart so that my way will be kept pure.

I will not wander from your commandments

The Holy Spirit is teaching me your commandments

I am delighting in your testimonies and clinging to them. I find delight in your commands which I love.

I am fixing my eyes on your ways and I will not forget your word

My eyes are opened that I may behold the wondrous things out of your law.

I have life according to your word.

I have chosen the way of faithfulness. I set your rules before me.

I hasten and do not delay to keep your commands.

Open the eyes of my heart to see, hear, and know the truth of your word that I need for my life today to live out your will.

My heart is good soil ready to receive the word of God. My heart is honest and good. I hear your word. I hold it fast and bear fruit with patience and produce a crop that is 30, 60, 100 times as much as was planted.
